Our Academic approach

Presenting timeless education to the new world

The more things change, the more we need to embrace things that never change. BWNS intends to provide a transformative learning experience rooted in foundational Indian values and universal ethics, which can truly address the needs of today's generation of children. We aspire to identify and nurture various naturally existing talents and inclinations in a student and facilitate in developing them.

According to mainstream psychology, IQ contributes only about 20 percent to the parameters that determine an individual's effectiveness and success. However, our conventional education system puts a disproportionate focus on IQ largely ignoring the other important dimensions of human well-being.

At BWNS, we lay emphasis on all the 4Qs (PQ, IQ, EQ and SQ) of development to better prepare our children and to equip them to face the world, beyond facing tests and exams.

Preparing the gen-next learners for the ~~industrial~~ entrepreneurial future

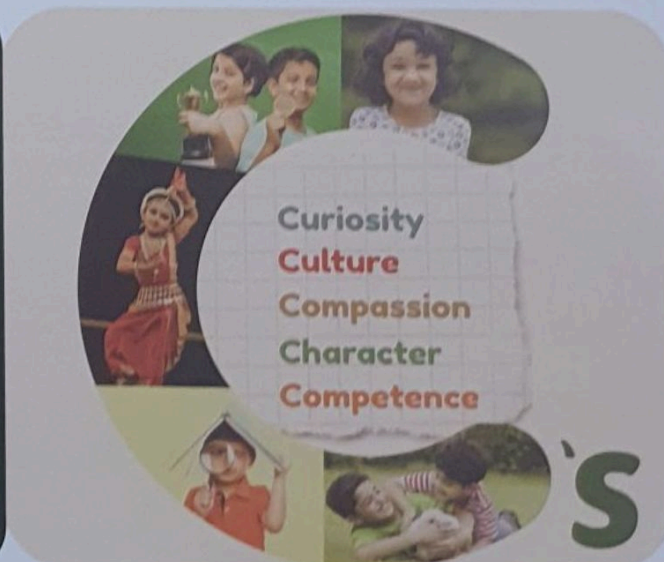

Leaders become great, not because of their power, but because of their ability to empower others. As resources become scarce in a planet whose population is expanding, smarter and more efficient solutions are needed at all levels.

We aspire to create leaders in every sphere of the society who can positively contribute towards solving the challenges of the world and to be 'job creators' than just 'job seekers'.

Putting the C's in the centre of childhood experiences

Curiosity, Compassion, Character, Competence and Culture. These values form the bedrock of the journey of learning for all the students at BWNS.
